A -------

Farms, Residences,

Timber Lots, Village Lots,

SAW MILLS, &c.,

Which, desiring to close up my

FOR SALE

AT LESS THAN THEIR VALUE.

Easy Terms of Payment,

CARROLL S. PAGE.

HYDE PARK, VT.

The L. P. Jones Farm, 98

The Foss Farm near School House in Greenfield; 60 acres-very desirable place, except house of no

The Greenfield Farm, 60 acres, lately owned by R. S. Page; good buildings, adjoins the Foss place last above mentioned, and the two would, together make a desirable farm.

The Mill Farm, lying south of Greenfield Mill above named; 6 acres, fair, cheap buildings, 100 Acres of Timber Land, known as the Bean lot, lying on the pond near H. S. Haskins' new pond; part of the land is flowed by Haskins'

100 Acres of Timber Land. known as the "Col. Whitney, Noyes lot," near Wilkins' Green River mill.

The Rowell Place, near Hyde Park village, 5 acres land and house a good, cheap place for a laborer who wants a few acres of land.

The Tenement House, first firm hand, denoted the name of pluck uilding west of Catholic church in and courage-a practical worker; not the Hyde Park Street. Would like to sell idle, nerveless, relaxed object which is this to some party who would fit it into denominated a tramp, and is a blight on a boarding house, for which there is a growing demand in this village. the face of nature. No; this man was never a tramp, and Small, Desirable Village Lots in Hyde Park village. The demand for labor in Hyde Park is good, and any intelligent and thrifty laborer, who car with the lumber, lime, nails, glass, shingle, doors, sash and stone, with which to build a respectable building, and the party building, allowed to renum and interest, Land within onequarter mile of dwelling, will be sold in lots of 1, 2, 3 or 5 acres to suit purchaser, at low prices and on liberal terms

ARE YOU

Going to Purchase

this season? If so, now is your time.

H. J. LILLEY, how we could get in that night; for rob bing, and perhaps murder, was what

Hyde Park,

Has on hand a good assortment of

At Reasonable Prices were doing a dastardly trick; to make me,

for eash or on time,

He also keeps on hand a good assort-

LUMBER WAGONS.

The wagons are all warranted, and a and get out of the gang; it would be diswritten guarantee given to the

The Lumber Wagons are Lilley's own make, while the Buggies are from the best manufac-

HARNESSES.

de offers the best Driving Harness for in the State.

&C., &C., &C.,

NEWS AND CITIZEN.

VOL. XII. NO. 38.

PUMPKIN PIES.

Gentle stranger, let me ask,

In the atmosphere of cooking

Askancely from the depths

To intoxicating eyes !

Even to the sunny skies,

As she opens to your eyes

The big oven she did shove in

The edelicious pumpkin pies.

Golden orbs of Inscious glory 1

Never had the world a story

Fairer to the hear: of man,

Ay ! to hearts of mortal c'an,

Than the manuscript in yellow

Worldly bliss-in pumpkin pies.

I could dwell in bliss and live it

Sitting in the pleasant kitchen

Fascinating, dainty, rare,

At me, ov r pumpkin pies.

Whose confises hold a fair witch in,

Baby's Bank.

"No," said the engineer, as he stood for the signal to start, "I wasn't always an engineer. I wasn't anything for a

"I had the knowlege in my head all the while, but it was lost under a heap of rubbish. What fools men are when

"But I was, gentlemen," he said, was not only a tramp, but the worst kind of one; and I worked harder and suffered more to get into that condition than I ever did to reach this." And he looked proudly at the polished trimmin gs of his they had found a tool, and they had,

and up to the veraudah.

"The gang I had fallen in with had made one mistake-they had kept me sober enough to make me feel that we of my own company. But I had gone so far I must go on.

"I had walked up the steps and into the house without seeing a soul, and I stepped into along, cool room, and there

I saw, on the mantle shelf, in a great gold-framed glass, a white face, and two red, bloodshot eyes—my own, but what a fright they gave me! and then I saw something else-a small iron bank such wrought iron, and between every bar was the glitter of gold and silver coin.

I hadn't a cent in my pocket, was hungry, tired, footsore, and disgusted with what I had undertaken. It came over me tection for myself and others, worth while, when I had put the people as children keep cents in.

we told him so.

In an hour such as this,

Ah, for evermore I wis-

Hot and toothsome 'neath your eyes

And I fain would long to spell, oh

Quarter, half, the whole, ch, give it !

'Tis the maiden, flour laden,

Manipulator of the pies.

When a maiden fair is looking,

Of her limpid, azure eyes-

As she shoves in the big oven

Did you ever stop to bask

MORRISVILLE AND HYDE PARK, VERMONT, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1884.

BOY 16 YEARS OF AGE ASKS FOR

TALKS WITH THE BOYS. OUR FOREIGN COMMERCE.

ays he Don't Want to Learn a Trade yet

"I am a boy 16 years old. Have a fair ducation; have no desire to learn a such subjects, those which represent the poor and unable to give advantages be- bined for the year ending June 30, 1884, yond the common schools. What can

The above letter comes from Wiscon couraged.

First, answering him personally, what do you wish to make of yourself? You colonies, $6,669,816, or .47 per cent.; have no desire to learn a trade, but you with all other countries, $15,103,658, or profession. You must take one or the trades and master of none.

Inferring, however, that your deyour time to the best advantage or throw sixth, New Orleans, 1.56 per cent. it away. With a fair common school With respect to value of exports of do study with an object in view. If you stood in the order of magnitude as folwish to become a doctor you will cer- lows: First, New York, 46 83 per cent .: tainly have to attend college and pursue second, New Orleans, 10.53 per cent.; special studies. If you wish to take up third, Boston, 8.07 per cent.; fourth, othing to indicate that 140 degrees- lawyer's office you may be admitted to the previous year.

encourage him. If you have a fair common school education-well up in arithmetic, grammar, orthography, chirography and historyheory, but as a contribution to the and are only 16 years old, you have many chances for success. If you have selected a profession which requires a penses, and must rely on yourself entirething which will bring you in money.

carver, joiner or tinsmith.

Think well before you take the step t is a serious hour in a boy's life wher NOTES AND COMMENTS.

facts and Figures that Bewilder the THE missionary ship Morning Star which sailed lately for the South Seas, The figures representing values and was built by the contributions of Sunquantities employed by Mr. Joseph day-schools, the shares being held by Nimmo, Jr., Chief of the Bureau of Statisthe children, an annual assessment of ten cents a share paying her running THE fire engines in Italian cities are still the same little hand pumps used in American style. THERE is not a single saloon in Marinsville, Va., or the county surrounding, and business men say that the absence of drinking houses has added thousands of dollars to their prosperity, while the quality of farm and other kinds 320, or 6.83 per cent.; with Africa and of labor has vastly improved since the closing of the dram shops,

> A DEALER in cod-liver oil in Marseilles dvertises that his fish are caught in a safe and quiet harbor, where marine monsters cannot enter to frighten them into diseases of the liver. "They live there," he says, "in peace and comfort; their livers are healthy, and this is why my cod-liver oil is the best." THE returns of the effective strength of the British army for the last twenty years (prepared by order of the Field Marshal commanding in chief) show that the lowest total during that period was reached last year, when it stood at 181,227, as against 216,791 on Jan. 1, 1864, or a decrease of 35,564. This beats the lawyers: George Benson, a Decatur soldier, got mad a short time ago because his pension claim was a failure, since before the high tempera- standard legal works, and get such in- dise entered for consumption was $667,- not settled and wrote to Uncle Sam tellsights as you may-you can shorten 575,389, against $700,829,673 the preceding him he could go to --- with it. He your college course very materially. In- ing year, The total amount of duties was going to Iowa. George hadn't in Mr. Stone's observations there is deed, if you can learn enough law in a was $190,283,836, against $210,637,293 more than got to Pokagon before his claim was adjusted, allowing him about above which point the natural heat of a the bar without going to college at all. The number of immigrants arrived in $1,100 back pay and $6 per month as development of the bacteria, or the re-development of the bacteria, or the re-dise and about 14.6 times the average know what you are doing?" year, to wit: From Great Britain and attested by the amount of the budget of annual value of our imports of merchanlegree of heat was necessary to destroy are against you as compared to a lad 676; from all other countries of Europe, just submitted to the Paris Municipal he bacteria. These experiments whose father can afford him a collegiate 143,236; from British North American Council. Its total is forty-two millions value of our entire foreign commerce, showed that the vitality of the bacteria education. Any move you may make provinces, 60,584. The immigration of frances, being some three and a half was destroyed and fermentation pre- toward a profession will cost money. from China fell from 8,031 in 1883 to millions more than the budget for this The real value of the internal commerce | would be imprisoned?" vented between 185 and 194 degrees But, if you have the true grit and are 270 in 1884. The percentage of female year. It is calculated that the number continued for four hours. These figures | thoroughly in earnest, pluck may stand | unmigrants was: From Ireland, 49.7; of individuals requiring assistance in are not given as absolute. Mr. Stone you in place of money. Dozens of the from England, 38.2; from Scotland, various forms will be 406,000. THE Medical Press (London) states through college by manual labor. There 37; from France, 34.3; from Germany, that the Commission appointed by the of merchandise into Great Britain and promise with the proprietor."-Phil. the same result, but does not think less are plenty of people of this generation 40.6; from Italy, 19.2; from the Nether- Government of India to examine into sheep shears and other hardware had

In one of the English public schools, difficulty arose between a teacher and results of the decision will be largely modified by the fact that teachers will continue to give lessons of such a length

Record asks if the requirements of Sheffield platemakers,

the disease. Dr. Klein, director of the The total tonnage of vessels entered and exact investigator of microscopy, and so convinced was he of the harmlessness of the comma bacillus that he duced no noticeable effect upon him. Mall Gazette, concerning the ex raor- and the case stands as follows: dinary variety of influences which affect | Annual value of products of in-Euglish trade is afforded by the last trade report from Sheffield. Owing to the drought in Queensland, which reduced the flocks of one great holder 1856 to 76.66 in 1884.

What the Moon is Doing.

bealth of children." THE London Vegetarian Society gave earth as it revolves, and friction, as a dinner to about 120 ladies and gentleevery one knows, causes loss of power. men at the Health Exhibition the other Suppose a wheel, with hair round its day. The object of the dinner, which r m, like a circular brush such as is used is one of a series, was to show how an for hair-brushing by machinery; if this ample and varied diet could be procured brush be revolving rapidly, and we hold without the use of any sort of animal our hand ever so lightly on the hair, so food. The menu included, among other that it is slightly rubbed backward as dishes, "Chestnutina de Lyon" soup, the wheel revolves, we can understand pea fritter and fried onions, and barley that the speed of the wheel will be pudding. After the dinner Dr. Ridge gradually diminished, until at last it delivered a short address, in which he laid stress upon the fact that it had been diet was not only possible but profitable, and expressed his conviction that the more salary than a man who got his spinning round. Now this is somewhat excessive use of condiments was the cause of a large proportion of dyspeptic illness. It was also believed that vegetarians lived much longer than the fleshcating members of the community. The Fight with the Potato Disease. In 1875 a great flood of light was thrown on the whole subject through one of those fortunate accidents that are I didn't touch the baby's hand, and I the rock, well and dirt tumbling in upon demned. * * * Two brothers were broached this matter, let me ask you to be about twenty-eight days, and the what was considered a new potato disthe rock, well and dirt tumbling in upon the living man in the depths below. accused of murdering a Frenchman, sit down and seriously reflect. I proved the full blaze of ease made its appearance. Mr. G. W. didn't touch the baby.

"While I stood there, a little pale woman came out of her room, and nearly fainted when she saw me, and I sat

the living man in the depths below. There came a faint cry for help. His their benefactor. The evidence against them appeared overwhelming, and their had none of them had the money and fainted when she saw me, and I sat

the living man in the depths below. There came a faint cry for help. His their benefactor. The evidence against them appeared overwhelming, and their fessions were not only overcrowded, but them appeared overwhelming, and their fessions were not only overcrowded, but them appeared overwhelming, and their fessions were not only overcrowded, but them appeared overwhelming, and their fessions were not only overcrowded, but them appeared overwhelming, and their fessions were not only overcrowded, but them appeared overwhelming, and their fessions were not only overcrowded, but them appeared overwhelming, and their fessions were not only overcrowded, but then none of them had the money and advocate, a thorough ruffian, when she saw me, and I sat the living man in the depths below. Smith's attention was directed to this circumstance, and his investigations led to you a few weeks ago that all the professions were not only overcrowded, but them appeared overwhelming, and their days are liable to ferment, they should be successionally and the same is true of soup stock.

Smith's attention was directed to this circumstance, and his investigations led to you a few weeks ago that all the professions were not only overcrowded, but them appeared overwhelming, and their days are liable to ferment, they should be successionally and the same in the depths below. Smith's attention was directed to this circumstance, and his investigation in the fessions were not only overcrowded, but the none of them appeared overwhelming, and there is a succession of the fact of the succession in the first of the succession in the fessions were not only overcrowded, but the none of them appeared vegetable, will be destroyed; all water portant result of his inquiries was the only turned to acc unt by skilled and observant men. Early in that summer will be evaporated; the solid rocks will discovery of the resting spores, and in be scorched and cracked, and the whole fact the whole life history of the peroworld reduced to a dreary and barren nospora. To become thoroughly acwilderness. It is supposed by some quainted with such a life history is a great victory in the struggle with the foe. A hope of ultimate triumph begins bare-looking surface. That the earth, to dawn, nor does such a hope appear being so much larger, has more quickly baseless when we consider what has acted upon the oceans which once were been accomplished in other fields of reupon the moon's surface, and stopped search. For instance, the souring of almost entirely its revolution round its wine, the turning of alcohol into vinegar, and the spoiling of vinegar itself, were known to be occasioned by a minute the heat of the sun has already done to fungus, and a remedy was found by one it what in future ages it will do to the of the greatest of French scientific men. Pasteur. In other cases similar success HE WORKED .- A fellow in McPher- has crowned human endeavor. Shall son, Kan., got rid of a judgment by man be ever baffled and beaten by this tories. The value of the exports of urplus product of our Western and nereased to $420,526,483 in 1880, and the development of internal commerce was very much greater.

York State canals fell from 6,442,225 tons during the year 1868 to 5,664,056 tons in 1883, but the tonnage transported on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad increased from 1,846,599 tons in 1868 to 10,892,440 tons in 1883; the tonnage transported on the New York, Lake Erie and Western Rail. road increased from 3,908,243 tons in 1868 to 13,610,623 tons in 1883; and the tonnage transported on the Pennsylvania Railroad increased from 4,722,015 tons in 1868 to 21,674,160 tons in 1883.

The total tonnage transported by rail on these three roads increased from 10.476.857 tons in 1868 to 46,177,223 tons in 1883. From trustworthy data it appears that the total value of our industrial products for the year ending June 30, 1883, amounted to at least $10,000,000,000; that the value of the products of industry in the United States is about 12.6 timgs the average annual value of our exports of merchanembracing both imports and exports. of the United States was nearly seven times the value of the exports of merchandise from Great Britain and Ireland, five times the value of the imports whole bakery, and then you can com-Ireland, and three times the value of the value of the exports of merchandise from | the coughing of a person in the court, Commission, is well known as a thorough | France, 8.6 times the value of the im- and after remonstrating several times in ports of merchandise into france, and vain, exclaimed, "I am bound to stop

five times the value of the total foreign that coughing. I'll fine you $10. I commerce of France. Compare the think that will stop it." "Jedge," said swallowed a number of them; they pro- total value of the products of the indus- the cadaverous man who had caused the tries of the United States with the value | trouble, "I'll be willin' to pay $20 to A curious instance, says the Pall of the exports of the countries named hev that cough stopped. Ef you ken offen that bench and go to practicin' dustry in the United States ... $10,000,000,000
Total value of the exports of medicine. There's money it, Jedgemoney in it."

From this it appears that the total been cancelled, much to the inconven- value of the products of all industries in ience of the capital of cutlery. On the the United States is more than twice the have no desire for great wealth. I other hand, the success of the 100-ton | total value of the exports of merchandise | should be happy, very happy, as the gun at Spezzia in smashing the armor of all kinds from the countries of plates supplied by Krupp is likely to Europe just mentioned.

merchandise from Great Britain and Ireland, France, lead to the placing of new Italian orders | The total value of the foreign comfor compound armor plates with the merce of Great Britain and Ireland with of a good bread maker, countries other than the United States was about one-tenth of the value of the industrial products of the United States. According to Mr. M. G. Mulhall, F. lessons which were to be learned at S. S., a much-quoted English authority, home. The case was taken before the the United States is now the largest Appellate Court, where it was decided manufacturing country on the globe, that "home lessons set by teachers can the value of its manufactured products not be enforced." The New York in 1880 being, as stated by him, about $650,000,000 in excess of the value of the products of manufacture of Great | acle,"- Graphic. Britain during that year. Our census valuation of products of manufacture in as to compel home study or result in a 1880 was $5,360,579,191. Of this amount he value of products consumed in the ternal commerce was $5,260,000,000. But the total value of the exports of products of manufacture from Great Britain and Ireland to all foreign countries during 1833 was only $1,047,000. 000, and the total value of the exports of products of manufacture from France was only $364,000,000. In other words, own manufacture consumed in the gate in the United States Supreme United States during 1880 was five times the value of the exports of products of manufacture from Great Britain and Ireland during the year 1883, and more than fourteen times the value of the exports of products of manufacture abundantly proved that a vegetarian from France during the same year.

United States and disposed of in our in-Household Hints and Helps.

Mock strawberry shortcake is described as follows: A can of peaches was opened and the large pieces were cut into small ones; then some "king" apples were stewed a little, and were cut peaches in the proportion of one apple to nearly three peaches. A nice shortcake was made and baked and the fruit spread upon it, with sugar sprinkled over it and with a liberal allowance of are liable to ferment, they should be heated to the boiling point and ther- of their importance. oughly scalded, to be safe for the winter.

chop pieces of steak or cold roast beef very fine. Make a batter of milk, flour dinners and drink more old Madeira and an egg and mix the meat with it, wine than any other class of officials at Put a lump of butter into a saucepan, let | Washington, and their "set" is the most it melt, then drop the batter into it exclusive. It has been the custom in from a large spoon. Fry until brown; exclusive. It has Court to make a forseason with pepper and salt and a little fried in butter and lard mixed. Fried apples make a nice entree, cut browned in lard or butter and lard mixed; drain them and serve them hot. Theymake a nice garnish for roast pork when prepared in this way. Some cooks use beef drippings instead of lard and like the flavor better.

THE HUMOROUS PAPERS. WHAT WE FIND IN THEIR COLUMNS TO SMILE OVER.

Giving it Away- An Unedifying Lesson-On a Very Large Scale-More than a Curton-hy-Did Not Keep it, Etc.

DIDN'T KEEP IT. "Well. Mr. Slickers," said the doctor, to a patient he had not seen the day before, "how are you getting along?"

"Nearly starved to death," "Why, didn't you have oysters?" "No, I couldn't get them the way you said, and I was afraid it would be dangerous to eat them the other way."

"Why, that's odd. Couldn't get stewed oysters? I told you you could eat stewed oysters with impunity." "That's just it, I could get the stewed oysters easy enough, but I sent to all the restaurants in the neighborhood for the impunity, and the blamed fools said they never had such a thing

He took her hand in his and poured into her ear the soft, sweet story told over and over again since the world was young. She smiled into his trusting face and coddled under his downy chin, "I love you so," he gurgled. "Do you?" she murmured. "Then I will remain so?" "Do you love me?" he inquired. "Don't ask me conundrums," she re-

"But I love you, darling," he went on, "and I've given you my whole heart. I have kept none of it back. It is all yours-all yours," "Mine to do just what I please with?"

she asked, in the sweet simplicity of girl-"Yes, darling." "Then I shall give it to Mary Martin.

She wants it, I know, and I haven't any use for yours and Bob Brown's, too, and Bob gave me his last night. You are He had discovered that he was,-

They were young and romantic, and although the minute hand was pointing to twelve o'clock they stood upon the porch gazing at the stars, "That's Jupiter, dear, isn't it?" she murmured. "Yes, pet, and that is Sirius," he replied, pointing to another star. "Are you Sirius?" she cooed. He kissed her several times. Then he

"That's Mars, dove." "And that's pa's," she whispered, as a footstep sounded inside, and if the 1 Old Gent-"Stop? Stop! Do you Seedy Stranger-"Yes, sir; but I can't "No matter. Don't you know that if you should steal a loaf of bread you

"Yes, I know that; but what can I do, "Well, if you will steal, take the

A New York judge was annoyed by

"Whose 'ittle embezzer is oo ?" "I'se oose 'ittle embezzler."-Life.

Eulalia (centimentally)-Oh, no! I

She concluded to learn,-Philadel-"What is a curiosity, ma?" asked lit-

"A curiosity is something that is very strange, my son."

"If pa bought you a sealskin sack this winter, would that be a curiosity?" "No, my son; that would be a mir-I pine, said the cow, for the days gone by,

For the maid, with the milking pail; And my moan fills the evening gale, No more in the dairy the maid is found,

To take pride in the cream tureen; No more in the fields, will we browse around,

The U. S. Supreme Court. Every morning a few lawyers, generrespective appointments. The Court ness of the court then proceeds. Once presence of half a dozen lawyers and a dozen spectators, more or less, which ratify or annul important legislation, confirming statutes enacted, or setting them one side as worthless. The Supreme Court is, consequently, really the highest power in the land, and the Chief Justice and his associates are profoundly aware With the exception of Mr. Justice

His stock consists of

Open Buggies, Covered Buggies, they had designed to rob on guard; they Concord Wagons, to prison. "The man whose house was to be now?"

of various manufactures, all of which were getting the better of me. I went life.

grew strong right off ; it made a man of "I never could tell what the baby saw in my face to make her help me in this way; but it wasn't of this world. "She knew she could save me, and to the baby and she smiled on me. 1

Those delicious pumpkin pies? "That was ten years ago, gentlemen and I am more of a man to-day than I Ah, what ecstacies appealing, ever was, and it is her doing." As the aromas gen ly stealing, Permeate the rural kitchen "She must be quite a large girl, now," Whose confines hold a fair witch in we said. Fascinating, dainty, rate, "Maybeso; I don't know how that is some folks say they don't reckon time by months and years. "I'd like to feel that she's the same Pumpkin pies! What memories rise sweet, smiling baby, holding out her hands in that confiding way, and call me that same name; but I never wanted it the last time. "She was going to sleep, never to wake up, the doctor said; they told me temperature of 122 deg. to 140 deg. she wouldn't know me, and that I would disturb her.

"I went on my knees, and crawled up to the bed and looked at her. "Dear child! she was as white as the sheets, and her pretty curls never stirred a hair, and her sweet eyes closed, and I groaned in my heart, for I thought she was gone; and then she opened her eyes, and there came a great struggle for breath, and oh! I'd have died to help her, and she just looked at me, and put one hand up-I fancied she pointed up there-and she smiled on me, and says she, all at once, 'Joe! Joe!' and then she made her mother understand she wanted something. "It was the little bank, and she wanted me to have it. I took it to numor her, and thought I'd give it back to her when she got well. "And then she smiled again, and I listened to hear her say 'Joe,' and all left to themselves sometimes! Now, "You see, I never could do wrong look at me. Would you say I ever was now; but how did she know about that little bank and my wicked thoughts? "And she forgave and loved me too, His white, muscular throat—white and wholesome under the coal dust-his pretty dear. The smoke makes me cry. strong, well-knitted frame, clear eye and There's the signal, Good-day, gentle-

> About noon yesterday I met a family man steaming down Fourteenth street toward Sixth avenue in a state of "con-"Those infernal servants of mine are oothering me again," he explained hotly, "and I'm going to fix things up this morning. I know a capable girl when I see her, and my wife doesn't.

wife has done the hiring, but now I propose to take a hand. Come down and "I'll tell you how it was," he said, "I see me hire a cook," was a tramp, no matter how I came to When we rushed into the office five be so, or why. I lost my home, friends, minutes later the solemn woman at the self-respect, and went from bad to desk did not look up, but the two rows worse, but I had never broken the laws, of domesties turned forty or fifty head toward us with more or less interest.

That's the difference. Hitherto my nor wronged anybody but myself, when I fell in with some fellows who thought "I want a cook," said my friend sharply, "a good plain cook." "They said every man has his price, The woman at the desk continued to and they offered me mine. I agreed to write without even looking at us. I sat down on the windowsill and tried to "It was this, to hang about and get figure out the percentage of American faces in the two long rows, while the the house of the richest man in the place—and to show them the way. They man who wanted a cook stormed up and said I looked the most respectable for down, explaining his views to the solemn woman in black. She did not notice. After a tedious wait she folded "Gentlemen, you wouldn't trust one of the gang with a quarter, least of all her letter, sealed it, and put it in the me as I looked then; but I felt almost mail box. Then she wiped her pen proud of the compliment, and that carefully on an old rag, and put it in afternoon I was to go up to the house the drawer. After examining her nails and look for work, or ask for food, just casually she rang a bell and said "Twenas it happened to strike me, and when ty-seven" sharply. A paper lay on the desk. She took it up, opened it calmly, there was no one at home but the women-folks, and look around to see and, turning her back, began to read with entire absorption. how we could get in that night; for rob "Twenty-seven" wore a jersey, a sneer pair of lace gloves, and a mouthful of variegated and full-sized teeth. She walked forward, planted herself before afternoon as this, and all the doors and windows were open, and not a soul saw my friend, and said, before he had time me as I lounged in through the garden to speak: "House or flat?" "Hu-ho-flat," "Boarders ?" "No. I want-" "Children?" "Two; my-" "How many in the fammerly?" "Six. But see here-"Up town?" "N-no." "What d'y pay?" "Eighteen dollars,"

With which the cook turned on he heel with withering contempt, and the Man Who Wanted a Cook and I went meekly forth. As I glanced back I thought I saw a furtive smile lurking about the corners of the mouth of the selemn woman in black,-Chicago Tri-

Converted In a Well.

like a flish that I could take this money The Marietta (Ga.) Journal says: Just over the county line in Paulding honesty, but not such as this they had County lives Mr. Manning Phillips. He has a well forty-five feet deep, walled "I reached out my hand, and stopped, up with rock forty feet. He could get no one to go down in it to finish the lace pillow, and all white and fruffy, like work desired until last Monday, when an angel, lay the loveliest baby I ever Mr. James Ross, a fearless, able-bodied I looked at her in startled wonder, she in the old well. A rope was fastened to that even the Haytian magistrate was opportunity to take the position of a that this action will continue until the opened her eyes as wide and bright as his body and he was lowered nearly to about to acquit him, when shouts arose traveler for a wholesale house. He had earth revolves on its own axis in the daisies, held up both pretty hands, the bottom, when those standing around in different parts of the court: "What! been educated without any aim beyond same time that the moon takes to revolve laughed like a bird singing, and said, the well on top of terra firma heard a are you going to take part with the it. 'Joe, Joe,' which wasn't my name at all. rumbling noise and were horrified to see white?" And the Frenchman was condown there and told the story, and asked of God replied, "I'll do what I can for loss for argument to sustain the defense. ber to have me sent to prison for pro- you, Jimmie." And thus completely At last he glanced round the crowded "She went for her husband, and all him and around him, he was unable to a broad grin and said: "Apres tout, ce the time we were talking the baby move his body, but managed to get his n'est qu'un blane de moins." The sally laughed and cooed, and called me by hand to his mouth and push the dirt produced a roar of laughter, and the the name she gave me-'Joe;' and the away. The rope around his body was prisoners were triumphantly acquitted rest of the gang were waiting at the cutting him fearfully. The men above by the tribunal, but not by public opinturn of the road for me to come back thoughtlessly tugged away at the rope and were about to pull him in twain, He "I didn't give them up; it was not

The men worked for dear life in removing the rock and dirt and to rescue immediately inserted in a V shaped cut Mr. Ross from his suffocating tomb. in the nose of a second. Dressings are a while you see a drone, but the vast left the town that night, and didn't go Mr. Ross from his suffocating tomb. For seven hours and a half he was thus imprisoned. When he was reached he to a small frame to prevent scratching at an object and an aim. Day after day, robbed gave me some work, but I didn't was almost unconscious, but the fresh reform all in a minute, and he never air soon revived him. He thanked God in twenty four hours, and in four days labor goes on. There is no rest for the could reform me at all; it was the baby and his rescuers for deliverance and said "When I found my evil inclinations were getting the better of me. I went down in that went a wicked man but henceforth he would lead a different less.

After this the rodent guards its front and well, my boy, for a mistake now may but henceforth he would lead a different less.

After this the rodent guards its front and well, my boy, for a mistake now may but henceforth he would lead a different less.

After this the rodent guards its front and well, my boy, for a mistake now may for a salary of $10 a year and his chew history of which we now knows so well?

The American Scientific Association but henceforth he would lead a different less.

After this the rodent guards its front and well, my boy, for a mistake now may for a salary of $10 a year and his chew history of which we now knows so well?

He went down in that went a wicked man but henceforth he would lead a different less.

After this the rodent guards its front and well, my boy, for a mistake now may for a salary of $10 a year and his chew history of which we now knows so well?

He went down in that went a wicked man but henceforth he would lead a different less.

After this the rodent guards its front and well, my boy, for a mistake now may for a salary of $10 a year and his chew history of which we now knows so well?

He went down in that went a wicked man but henceforth he would lead a different less.

After this the rodent guards its front and well, my boy, for a mistake now may for a mi

FARM AND GARDEN. ENSILAGE AT HOUGHTON FARM.-Exriments undertaken at Houghton arm, Mountainville, N. J., and reportupon by Winthrop E. Stone in the untry Gentleman, give results appartly autagonistic to Dr. Manley Miles's eory and add an interesting contribuon on the support of silos and ensilage. will be remembered that Dr. Miles's neory was based upon the view that rmentation results from the action of trade but have a great desire to secure nation's growth are astonishing. The uiuute organisms called bacteria, What a thorough education. My parents are value of the imports and exports comver destroys the vitality of these will revent germination and the resulting cidity so universal in ensilage. It was you prescribe for my case?" laimed that the heat generated in the ass of ensilage, when left without sin. It fails to give many points which packing or weighing, would be sufficient ought to have been covered, but preto destroy the bacteria and produce en- sents sufficient to prove that the lad has $228,538,551, or 16 23 per cent.; with lage free from acidity. Dr. Miles's an ambition which hould be enexperiments seemed to indicate that a Fahrenheit maintained for an hour or two would be fatal to the bacteria, In each of the eight fillings of the experi- do not say that you wish to enter upon a 1.07 per cent. nental silo at Houghton Farm, the resuits show that bacteria appear in nine or ten hours after filling; that free acid was always found after twenty-four hours, and in strata where the temperature of the entire layer rose above 120 legrees in about forty-eight hours. Granting that 122 to 140 degrees is suffieient to destroy the bacteria and prevent fermentation, Mr. Stone does not inderstand how the generation of this legree of heat in a silo can prevent cidity in the ensilage, when bacteria, ermentation and acidity are all present at a temperature of 110 degrees. He | the law and can secure a place in the | Baltimore, 5.56 per cent.; fifth, San says: "Even if the principle of the theory is correct, the above results indi- two to acquaint yourself with the forms | Philadelphia, 4.70 per cent. cate that its practical workings would be of law-draw up papers, study various In 1884 the value of dutiable merchan-

ture can be produced the mischievous fermentation is well under way." But ilo rarely rises—is detrimental to the You can become a book-keeper, clerk or the United States during the year was long as be lives. ulting fermentation and acidity. Ex- the former, for a longer period might accomplish han 160 degrees will suffice, and no orlinary silo temperature reaches this oint. These observations, it ought to e explained, are not presented by Mc. stone as arguments for or against any nowledge of ensiling.

DAUBLE CROPPING -I have been ite successful this year in raising two ops in a garden of about half an acre. The soil is a warm, gravelly loam, in good condition, It was plowed early nd planted at once with potatoes, sweet orn, peas, beets, lettuce, radishes and Even though your wages are small you arsnips. Everything was fertilized in can save enough in two years to pay he hill or row with a mixture of superphosphate and henmanure. The weather vas warm after planting, and the seeds Il came up, but the frost the latter vourself in every common school study. entered at scaports of the United States. part of May killed the corn and potatoes | You do not write as good as most boys | The percentage of total imports and exthe ground. Another time I would of your age. Half an hour's practice ports carried in American vessels fell oe dirt over them as a protection from every evening for three months will from 75.2 per cent, in 1856 to 27.7 per rost. The corn was planted over, About make you a good penman. If your cent, in 1865. Since the year 1865 the alf of the first planting grew; and as father cannot afford to give you money proportion of imports and exports in hree kinds (early, medium and late) he can surely afford to give you some of American vessels fluctuated much, but were planted both times, there were his evenings to hear your lessons. Or- during the year ending June 30, 1884, really two crops of corn. The first thography and grammar should be masplanted-Early Minnesota-was ready tered as thoroughly as possible. Don't or picking early in August; the differ- throw away an hour's time on algebra ent kinds and two plantings came on unless you are studying to become a pressive. In 1850 the number of acres successively as wanted, and we are now teacher or a civil engineer. Without be- of improved land in farms was 113,032. October 9) using the last of Stowell's ong obligated by the same reason do not 614, against 284,771,049 in 1883. In Evergreen. Most of the hills contained weary your brain over intricate matheome stalks of both early and late corp. matics. There isn't a lawyer, doctor, one did not seem to interfere with the editor or clergyman in the country who levelopments of the other. After the has any use for mathematics beyond the early had been picked and their stalks four simple tables once in ten years. 96 000,000 in 1883. In 1850 the value cut out, there seemed to be a good crop | Retail merchants and bankers have their of the large late corn left. The potatoes printed tables showing rates of interest $1,019,106,616, against $5,369,579.191 planted were the Beauty of Hebron. and the quotient of all figures in frac-The yield was large, the tubers large and cions likely to ever be called for, and the of fine quality. They ripened early, head of a wholesale house never meets and the tops, which were never large, with anything harder than finding how one hoeing and hilling which they re- come to at six and a quarter cents per ceived, a quantity of fine manure, ashes | yard, and superphosphate was put between the rows and well mixed with the soil by tion" unless you have a target beyond it. running a cultivator with only two long | There are plenty of thoroughly educated teeth between the rows. The surface was levelled and cabbage, celery and tomatoes set, and beets, beans, radishes, summer squashes and turnips planted. All these except the turnips have dong walked out into the world again to find well. The whole garden except the corn ground is still covered with growing vegetables, from which we draw ute much to the winter supplies. -C. H. D., WABSAW, N. Y.

Life in Hayti. In the police courts they (the whites). know their fate beforehand, * * * During my stay, an elderly Frenchman was summoned before a Juge de paix for an assault upon a black. The evidence was so much in favor of the white I have seen that same man glad of an increasing the length of the day, and walled in with rock above him, below | court, and then turned to the jury with

How Two-Tailed Rats are Made,succeeded in getting his knife out of his | The two-tailed rats which are exhibited pocket and severed the rope that bound at museums are the result of a neat surgical trick and not lusus natures. The tail of a healthy rat is cut off, and applied and the animal's legs tied down | majority are workers. Every one has the new member. The second tail sets | month after month, year after year the nterval do not throw your evenings els is now less even than the percentage away. If you only will you can advance of the tonnage of American vessels were early out of the way. After the much 15,430 yards of sheeting would

Do not sigh for a "thorough educamen who are a heavy burden on their riends. Without having determined of a profession they rushed off to college graduated with the highest honors and hemselves worse off than before. Bookeepers are paid for being accurate. onest and reliable. The merchant never asks to see any specimens of their Greek largely every day and which will contrib-Cashiers may have spent twenty years at college without receiving a dollar lawyer in law and the clergyman in these ease which were commonly attributed. How do you know you don't want o learn a trade? Did you ever give it ten minutes' serious thought? You can begin now and have any trade known in his country finished by the day you reach manhood. Ask yourself if it isn't ossible that you might make a poor awyer or doctor or teacher, when you might make a success as a jeweler, e comes to a decision on this matter. It is not for a day but for a life-time. nervous connection is established, bees until worn out. Think seriously swearing that "he worked for his wife potato mould—this tiny foe, the life ics, in his report for 1884, on the foragn commerce of the United States, are lmost bewildering from their magnitude, and even to minds familiar with out a movement is now on foot to introwas $1,408,211,302. Our commerce duce steam engines according to the with the countries of Europe was $954 .-752 063 or 67.80 per cent.; with the colonies of North America, Mexico, Central America and West Indies it was South America, $106,980,894, or 7 60 per cent.; with Asia and Oceanica, $96,166,-

The six principal ports stood, with other or else be content as Jack-of-all- reference to imports of merchandise, as follows: First, New York, 66.14 per cent.; second, Boston, 9.37 per cent.; sire for a thorough education is born of third, San Francisco, 6.32 per cent.; the intention to pursue a profession, you fourth, Philadelphia, 4.77 per cent.; are just now at the point to put in fifth, Baltimore, 1.62 per cent.; and education to back you you must now mestic merchandise the first six ports office of a lawyer at home for a year or Francisco, 5.51 per cent.; and sixth, thinks it possible a lower temperature leading men of to-day paid their way 37.5; from Austria, 42.3; from Denmark, who stand ready to give a plucky boy a lands, 40.2; from Norway, 37.7; from the cholera question has reported that total foreign commerce of Great Britain ift up the ladder, and all will at least | Sweden, 37; from Russia, 37.3; from Dr. Koch's microbe is not the cause of and Ireland. It was eleven times the British North American provinces, 38.3, and from Asia, only 1.5. at seaports of the United States fell rom 13,360,857 tons during the year ending June 30, 1883, to 12,085 613 tons luring the year ending June 30, 1884. ly, quit school and go to work at some in 1884, and the percentage of foreign tonnage entered increased from 28.44 in

The percentage of imports and exports your way through college. During the of merchandise carried in American vesfrom 27,000 to 5,000, large orders for

The figures and statements relating to our internal commerce are most im-1850 the number of miles of railroad in operation was 9,021, against 121,592 in 1883. The number of tons of coal pro-Medical Record thinks the practical duced in 1850 was 7,358,899, against of products of merchandise was lowering of the scholar's standing. The home study are not, in general, "too ex-The tides are caused mainly by the acting for the proper development of the moon, as it were, catching hold of the water as the earth revolves around on its axis. This must cause friction on the will be brought to a stand-still, protranslations or essays on physiology. vided there is no additional power communicated to the wheel by machinery or hand beyond what was given to set it schooling in a village. If the doctor is analogous to what is happening to the thoroughly educated in medicine and the earth in its rotation. There is reason to suppose that the action of the tides is ology we demand no more. I have heard slowly but surely lessening the speed of t said of a man that he was a scholar and the earth's rotation, and consequently round the earth. Then the day, instead that the moon has already passed through all this, hence its shattered and own axis, thus causing it to have a day equal to twenty-eight of our days, and

TERMS $1.50.

SOME INTERESTING FIGURES. Miles of Railroad-Tonnage of New York -Exports and Imports, Etc., Etc.

The total number of miles of railroad on the bill of fare."— Texas Siftings. a the States of Obio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, and Dakota was 1,276 in 1850, 22,747 in 1870, and 55,874 in 1883. From 92 to 95 per cent. of grain received at the ports of Portland, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, the beginning of this century; not a and Baltimore during the year 1883 was single steam fire engine exists on the the product of our Western and Northpeninsula, owing to the rarity of fires western States and Territories. It is estimated also that about 95 per cent, of our exports of beef, 93 per cent, of our exports of pork products, and 85 per ceut, of our exports of live animals are the products of these States and Terribreadstuffs and provisions, chiefly the Northwestern States, which, as before stated, amounted to $73,664,431 in 1856,

The tonnage transported on the New too late.' Cincinnati Traveller.

pointed upward and said:

young man hadn't scooted he would have seen more stars than he ever dreamed of. Her pa wears a 123 with a brass toe. - Washington Harchet. DO IT ON A LARGE SCALE.

sir? I must live."

George (practically)-And I should be happy, very happy, as the husband

My office is gone, and I'm left to sigh;

ally wearing black dress suits, congre-Senate chamber. At eleven o'clock the door of a side room opens and Marshal Nicolay enters, followed by the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices, wearing their black robes of office. Nicolay announces, as he enters: "The Supreme Court of the United States," the lawyers rising and assuming respectful attitudes, The Chief Justice stands before the central arm chair, and the Justices stand on his right and left in the order of their turns the bow reverentially. The busiinto small pieces also and mixed with the a week decisions are rendered in the Bradley, the Judges of the Supreme Beef fritters are nice for breakfast; Court are men of great magnitude at the waistband. They eat more good mal visit to the President on the opening day of each term, and the neglect of Mr. Arthur to curtail his "outing" that into thin slices and rolled in flour and he might be at the White House to receive this visit, has elicited censorial remarks. Indeed, to hear some of these across the core in slices, and then venerable old "roosters" in black gowns sigh, as they talk about the President's absence on their opening day, one would think that some great calamity must ensue, and that the wheels of government would soon stop. The President, however, will soon make it right by giving the court its clerk, its marshal